AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in eash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospeets of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may b determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the time for immediate connexion with Washington County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: James T. Close, H. W. Thomas, Thomas T. Hill, T. B. Robertson, R. H. Carter. Dr. R. H. Stabler, Wm. Wright, Christopher Neale, R. F. Lester, P. D. Lipscomb. Ben. F. Nalle, Silas Biglow. George E. French, W. M. Turner, Wm. C. Knight.

Literally has the denunciation pronounced against it being fulfilled; and we now see the abomination of desolation, spoken by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not." Where the magnificent Temple of Solomon, erected in honor of the the "Unutterable," once stood, now towers the Mohammedan Mosque of Omar. And from this sacred spot peals forth the Muzzim's cry, five times during the twenty-four hours-at dawn of day, noon, three o'clock, sunset, and two hours after sunset-to call the faithful to prayers .--What heart-rending emotions fill the breast of every Christian, as these words strike upon his ear: "God is great-God is great; Mohammet is the prophet of God!" This is first proclaimed from the minaret of the Temple enclosure, (the Harem es Sharif) and then repeated by cries from the minarets in differents parts of the city. The cry at dawn of day is a little modified, having this addition: "Arise from sleep and come to prayers, for prayer is better than sleep. When this summons is made-which is done by blind men, chosen for the office, that they may not look down upon the women on the house-tops, or in the courts below-the devout Mohammedan, no matter where he is, or under what wives, promenading on the public plain and in the fields, or vending goods in the market-doffs his slippers and tarbush, washes his feet, head, face, hands-if they are in the fields, water is omitted; and then after spreada rug, proceeds with his genufluxions: uttering at the same time what has been proclaimed from the minaret, making no petitions, expressing no gratitude. They who are not so devout do not inconvenince themselves to pray immediately. If they are engaged in either business or pleasure, they defer their prayers for a more convenient season. So they pray before the Muzzim sounds again, it is just as acceptable. The women pray with the head

"Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth is Mount Zion." The modern town-El Khuds, or the Holy, as it is called by the Arabs-stands upon the same site as that occupied by the city when it was besieged by Titus, but more circumscribed in extent.
